

Addendum to the Overview Report: The College of Nurses of Ontario (Exhibit 8)

The following changes should be made in Tab A: Specific Chronology

DATE	EVENT
56. Sep. 29 – 30, 2016	The CNO is contacted by Dr. Kahn at CAMH. Dr. Kahn, with the stated consent of EW, reported that EW had confessed to murdering eight patients, and to stealing Dilaudid. A Reports Intake Assessment Form is created. Intake Investigator Vicki Wolf also speaks to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Hedi Wilmont-Smith Heidi Wilmot-Smith, President of Lifeguard Homecare, Brantford, who reported no issues with clinical practice but two other issues: the first involved professional communication with co-workers, which was felt to have sexual overtones; the second involved EW wearing scrubs with dog hair on them.</li><li>• EW, who indicated that she had administered insulin overdoses to patients approximately 14 times, and provided further details. EW indicated that she would be willing to sign an undertaking not to practice.</li><li>• Detective Sargent Heather Nichols and Detective Kevin Hamilton.</li><li>• Tamara Condy, Supervisor of Nursing and Clinical Practice Coach at Saint Elizabeth Healthcare, who indicated that she had no concerns with EW, except that she was rusty on some technical skills.</li></ul>
60. Oct. 14, 1996 Oct. 14, 2016	The CNO's Public Register was updated to reflect the fact that EW was no longer entitled to practice nursing as she had resigned her certificate.