

Overall Results for Jarlette Health Services – Meadow Park London Long Term Care

Potentially Inappropriate Use of Antipsychotics in Long-Term Care, 2016–2017

[Appropriateness and Effectiveness]

Restraint Use in Long-Term Care, 2016–2017 [\[Appropriateness and Effectiveness\]](#)

Improved Physical Functioning in Long-Term Care, 2016–2017

[\[Health Status\]](#)

Worsened Physical Functioning in Long-Term Care, 2016–2017

[\[Health Status\]](#)

Worsened Depressive Mood in Long-Term Care, 2016–2017

[Health Status]

Experiencing Pain in Long-Term Care, 2016–2017 [Health Status]

Experiencing Worsened Pain in Long-Term Care, 2016–2017

[Health Status]

Falls in the Last 30 Days in Long-Term Care, 2016–2017 [Safety]

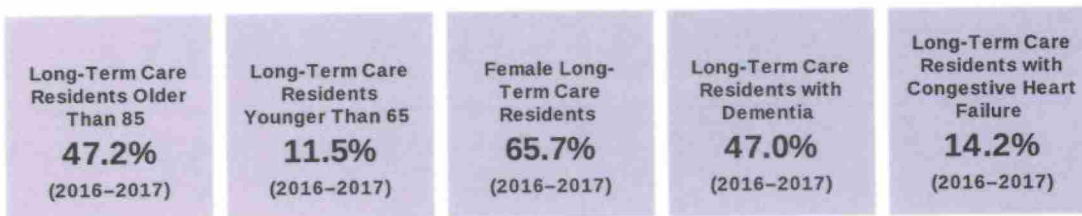

Worsened Pressure Ulcer in Long-Term Care, 2016–2017

[Safety]

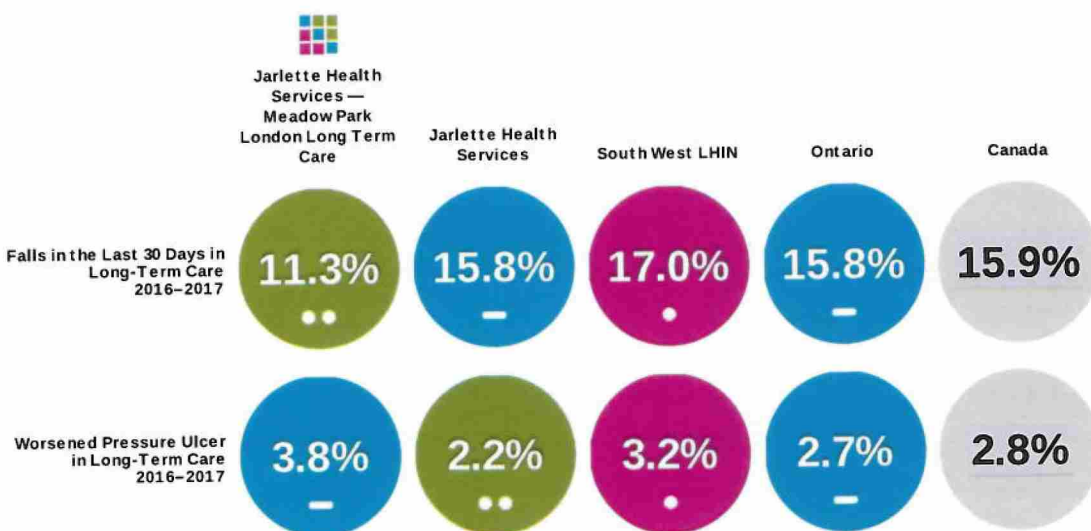

Results by theme and indicator for Jarlette Health Services — Meadow Park London Long Term Care.

⊕ Safety

Receiving the safest possible care every time a person uses the health system.

⊕ Appropriateness and Effectiveness

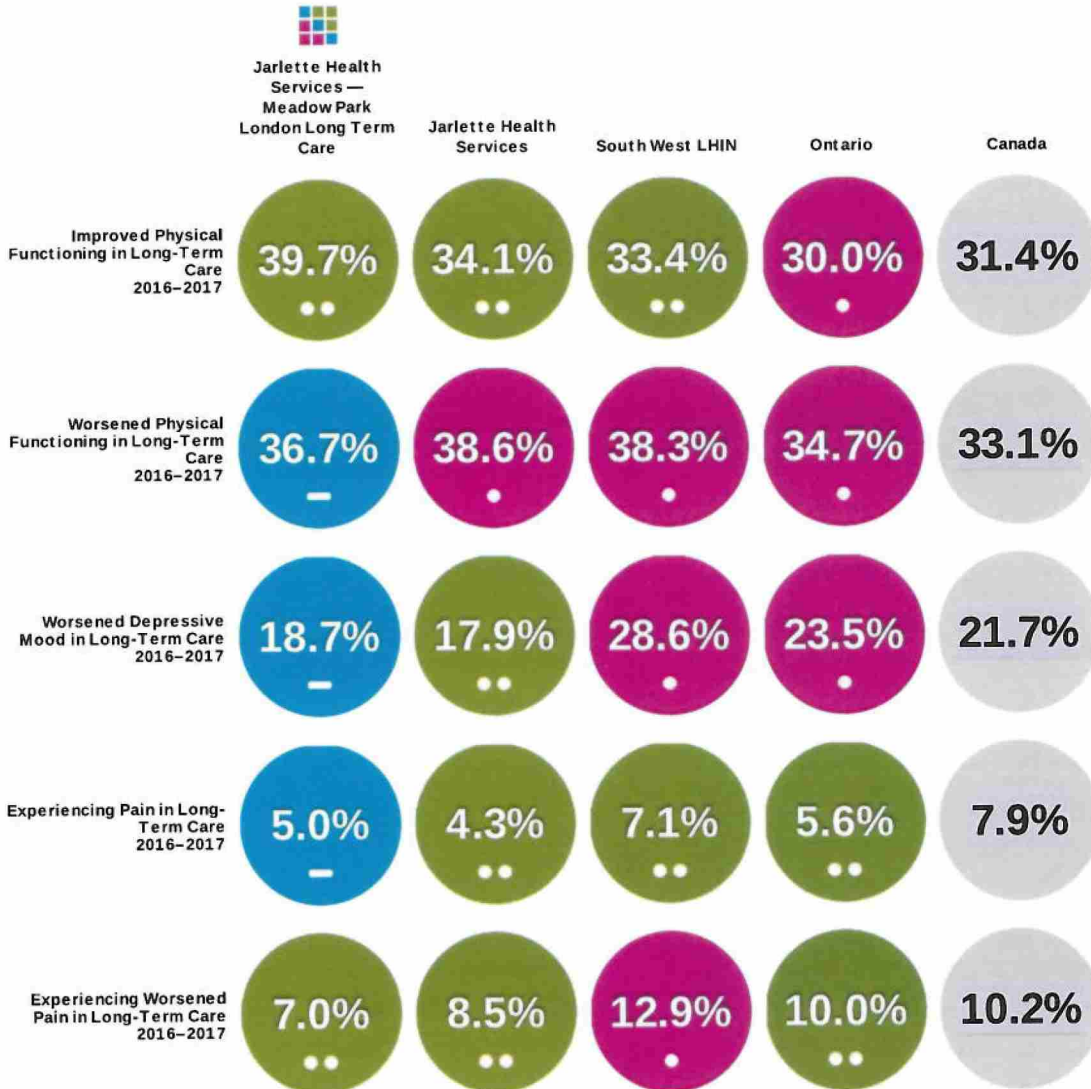

Providing care to only those who could benefit; this reduces the incidence, duration, intensity and consequences of health problems.

Health Status

The health system's contribution to Canadians' physical, mental and social health and well-being.

Results by theme and indicator for Jarlette Health Services – Meadow Park London Long Term Care.

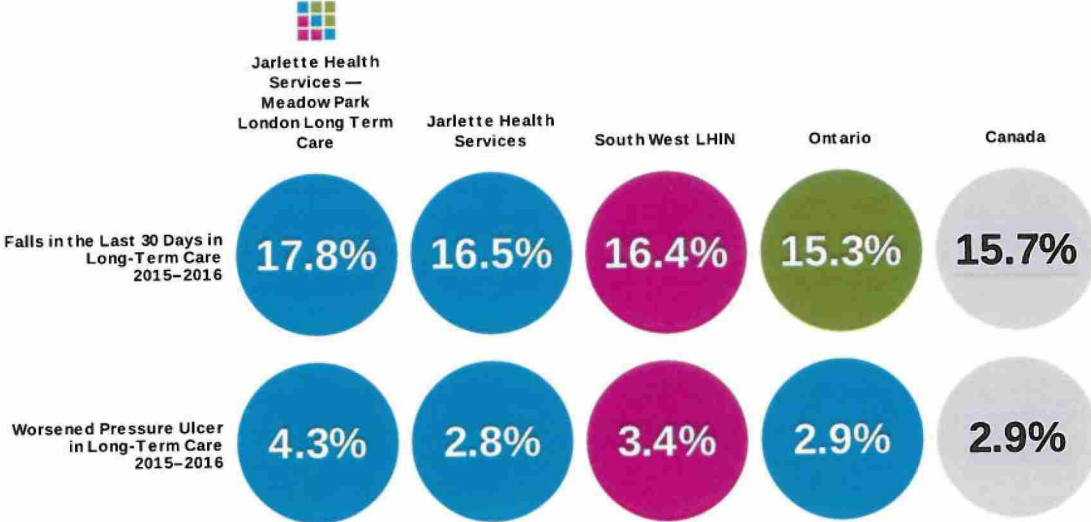

These contextual measures reflect the most recent year of data available and provide important context to help users interpret indicator results. More information about these measures can be found on the Resources Page of the Indicator Library.

⊕ Safety

Receiving the safest possible care every time a person uses the health system.

● Above average ● Same as average ● Below average ● No assessment

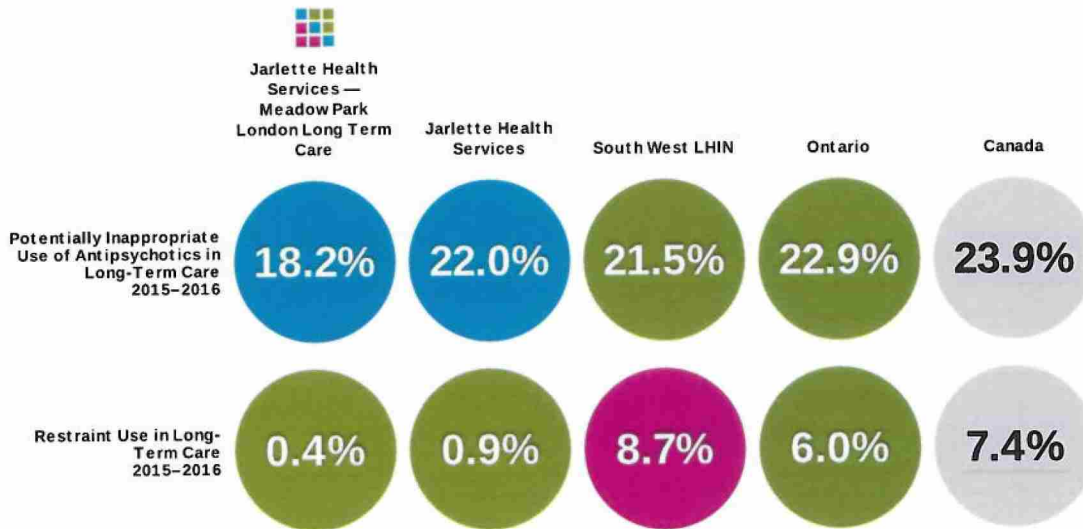

⊕ Appropriateness and Effectiveness

Providing care to only those who could benefit; this reduces the incidence, duration, intensity and consequences of health problems.

● Above average ● Same as average ● Below average ● No assessment

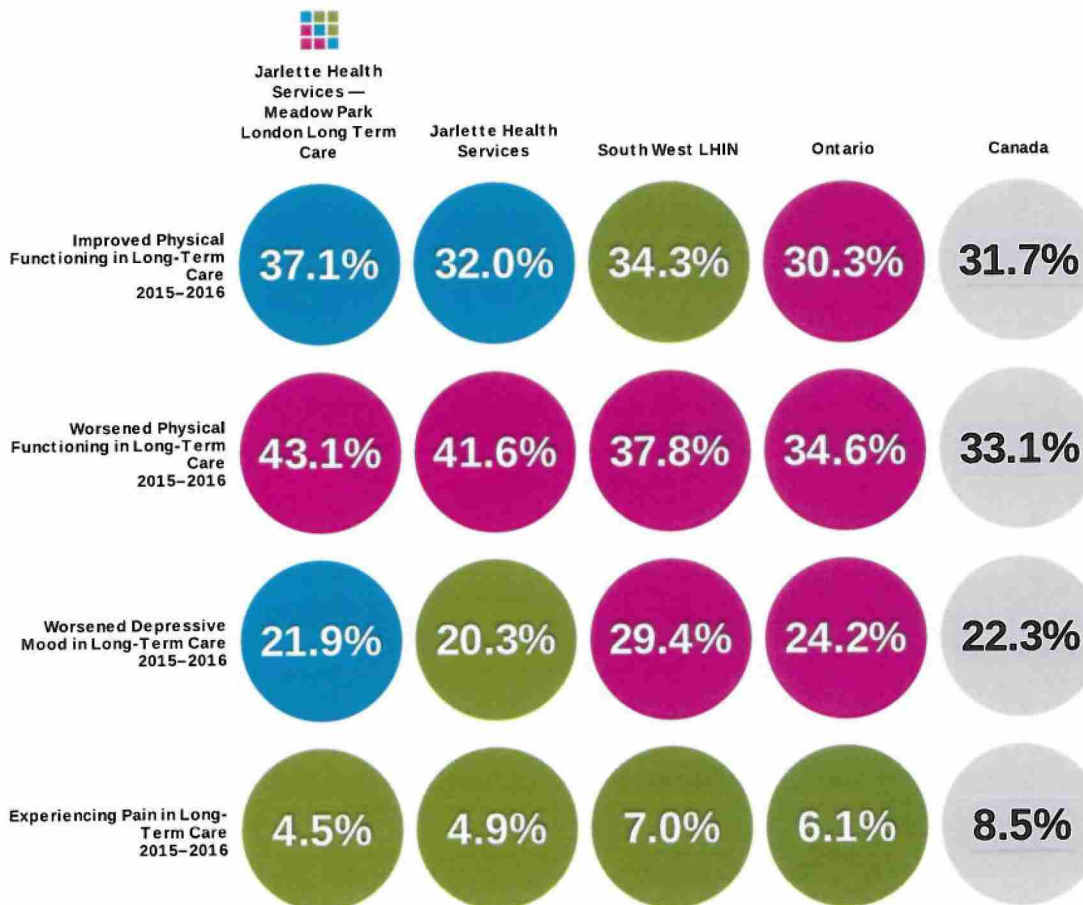

Health Status

The health system's contribution to Canadians' physical, mental and social health and well-being.

● Above average
 ● Same as average
 ● Below average
 ● No assessment

Experiencing Worsened
Pain in Long-Term Care
2015-2016

